Camp Wanna Iguana Adventure Camp, July 5 - August 19

Rex, Special Events Coordinator for our Summer Camp program, is super excited for the games in 2011! Rex, our very "hip" green iguana mascot, says he's ready to "wanna iguana" when planning this year's wet & wild, down & dirty, crazy & silly, unbelievable special events for this summer! We invite kids to get on their mark, get REC, & Go! As always, campers participate in a number of cool activities that will encourage their spirit and self confidence to get up and get going! So kids, get ready to play your favorite sports and other games to keep you fit, get you creative with arts and crafts, and, of course, you go on lots of off-site very fun field trips! Rec 3 this year will also have some additional adventure base programming (such as kayaking, geocaching) in place of some of the other activities... We know most of these kids are just counting the days until they get to be in Teen Turf so we wanted to give the Rec 3 kids a little head start this year!

Camp Wanna Iguana - Teen TURF, July 5 - August 19

This camp, geared especially for teens, is perfect for this population. Our "Teen Camp" concept for 2011 will have many more adventure base field trips (i.e. kayaking, geocaching) built right into this camp price. Plus we will try to include, additional impromptu field trips, along with their regular field trip line-up as well as include team building and creative outdoor recreation and educational activities. Kids, don't miss an opportunity to hang out with friends while participating in some great activities suited just for you!

Camper numbers will be limited this year. Please, do not wait until the last minute to sign your child up for camp.

Fully Registered?

Once we receive your first payment, your child is automatically registered. You will still need to fill out additional camper information which you will get in your parents packet. $30 late fee will be applied if Camper Paperwork is not turned in by 6/11/11.
